OST,-FRIDAY, JANUARY 29, A Lady's Gold Watch. A liberal reward will be paid when returned to MRS, O. T. LEE, 72 "One of the Finest" in Montelair.

The seenery in E. J. Hassan's great New York police play, "One of the Finest," is one of its principal features; few companies, if any, who advertise "all special scenery," keep faith with the public. Mr. Hassan, on the contrary, produces all that he advertises, and those who have been fortunate enough to see "One of the Finest" can fully testify to this :- the magnificent Central Park scene, with all its magnificent trees, bridges, boats, etc.; the mansion on Fifth Avenue, with the beautiful St. Patrick's Cathedral in the distance, and the chime of bells playing the Christmas hymn. In the third act we come to the quiet home of John Mishler, on Hester Street; a simple but beautiful scene. Then again we are transported to that beautiful Blackwell's Island, East River, standing out in bold relief between those two great cities; New York and Brooklyn. In the twinkling of an eye we are carried back to the scene of so much bustle and excitement, Fall River Line, Pier 28, North River; there we witness the sailing of those mammoth floating palaces, the Puritan and Pilgrim, and the arrival of the monster sailing ship, while ferryboats and smaller craft ply continuously up and down the river. In this scene occurs the worderful and realistic rain storm; finally we are again brought back to the mansion uptown, and after an evening of laughter and enjoyment we wonder how it is possible to transport so much scenery and handle it all in the comparatively short time of first-class in every respect.

one performance of three hours. "One of the Finest" wi'l be produced in the Montclair Opera-house next Monday evening. Tickets may be obtained at the Central Pharmacy, Montclair.
